IAC-M-317
22 November 1957

1. NIE 11-4-57
Main Trends in Soviet
Capabilities and Policies,
1957-1962

The members discussed various portions of this draft estimate, including a number of proposed amendments. After exchanging views and tentatively agreeing on certain parts of the paper, the members decided to reconsider those portions on which agreement had not been reached at the next regular IAC meeting. In this connection, the members concurred in the view that the draft paragraphs bearing on Soviet long-range aviation, as amended in the light of this discussion, should be re-circulated, and that the IAC representatives should consider these paragraphs, together with any proposed footnotes, prior to any further review by the IAC.

It was also agreed that, providing final action was taken on NIE 11-4-57 on next Tuesday, the members would also consider the question of the release of this estimate to certain foreign countries at the same meeting.

Adjournment: 1250
